NOTICE

This is with reference to Notification No. /Dean (Exams.)/Lockdown 04/2020 dated 30th May 2020 regarding guidelines/policies related with conduct of Open Book Examinations (OBE) for final year students for all UG programmes of all streams in view of the COVID-19 pandemic as one time measure for academic session 2019-20, issued by The Dean (Examinations), University of Delhi.

All the 3rd year and Ex-students are hereby informed that for appearing in the examinations in the OBE mode, online platform is not required for entire period.  It requires only limited access to internet and hardware for downloading the question papers prior to the commencement of examination and for uploading the answer sheets after completion of the examination.

Although, if any student wants to avail the ICT infrastructure facility within the college campus, due to non-availability of Internet and hardware for appearing in OBE, he/she can send an application, addressed to "The Principal, BCAS" and email the same to exambranch.bcas@gmail.com

The application should have all the following details of the student:

1.  Name      2. Course     3. College Roll No.        4. Examination Roll No.

5. Dates of Exams:  (for which ICT facility is required)

The last date for receiving the application will be 21.06.2020 till 5:00 p.m. No application will be entertained after the above mentioned date and time.

After considering all the applications, students would be informed about the decision of the availability of the systems.

                                                                        Sd/-
                                                                        Principal
